Welcome to the Borough of Kettering located within the heart of England and North Northamptonshire. Made up of 4 towns and 25 villages the Borough is an attractive and accessible place full of history and characterised by the beautiful countryside, market towns and villages.

The area has a wealth of countryside and heritage waiting to be explored including museums, churches, historic buildings and wonderful walks. There are also a number of shops, restaurants and traditional pubs across the Borough all waiting to be discovered. Whether you are a local resident or visitor, don’t forget to visit the Kettering Tourist Information Centre for more information on places to visit, things to do and events happening within the Borough.

The Borough has plenty to offer

Reasons to get out more

Whether commuting to work or rural, or just to have fun, there is nothing like the sense of freedom cycling provides to escape away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

Becoming skilled and fit on a bicycle takes time, but the effort is greatly rewarded. The advantages of using a bike for transport and leisure are increasingly apparent. Being able to cycle is an excellent way to build up your fitness, improve your health and benefit the environment. The simple pleasure of being able to go several miles on a bicycle.

Cycling gives a freedom that others often cannot. By cycling, our daily journeys around the Borough offer opportunities to see the beauty of our surroundings, whilst having fun, improving fitness and well-being.

Cycling for recreation is also a great way to interact with the environment whilst causing no harm. There is no better way to experience our heritage of churches, nature reserves, ancient monuments, parks and tourist attractions than by bicycle.